CHESTER "RED" TORKELSON, OF THE PELICANS, LEADING PITCHER IN THE SOUTHERN LEAGUE AND CHIEF OF THE "NUTS" Ho!,Ho! -Te! He! Har!-Har!-

Red Torkelson, of the New Orleans team, not only is the leading pitcher in the Southern league, but he is the best comedian on the coaching line the league has had since George Kircher was with Atlanta. The accompanying snapshots shows 'Red' in action. His burlesque card and dice games and prize fight keep the fans in good humor during the dull innings. In the last panel Fred Coumbe, of the Cleveland club, who is known as King of the Big League Cuckoos, shown crowning Torkelson King of the Minor League Cuckoos. A cuckoo is just a plain, ordinary nut. President Martin has ruled that his antics are O. K. and says "Red" is the funniest coacher in the business.

The Pels didn't get a hit off Fentress until the sixth when Daniels and Knaupp cut in with blows. Fentress son watched the rejuvenated Chicks in was scored on in the first inning when he walked Daniels, Knaupp sacrificed.

HO IN THIS great city of Memphis-on-the-Mississippi would have dreamed that the lowly Chicks, who are decorating the bottom of the percentage column, would have trounced the New Orleans Pelicans, 1918 champions and the pace setunyear, in a double-header? Unreal as it seemed and unexpected and astounding as it was, that is exactly what occurred at Russwood Sunday afternoon. Five thousand fans turned out to watch the Tribe in action, and the chances are that 4,000 of this number exported to see the Peis defeat the Chicks in both games. The other thousand probably "had their doots," The Chicks themselves hoped for at least one game. The Pels were confident of winning both.

But you can never tell in basebali. In the opener the Tribe whaled the Reverend Dr. Lankenau, the Pels' preacher-pitcher, into complete submission, making it necessary for Dr. Lankenau to seek cover. In the final game Hurling Hub Perdue, a grand pitcher and a veteran of many years' experilence, elected to beat Memphis and was well on the way to that end when he exuded a pair of wild pitches which beat him.

Roy Eben Fentress, the Oklahoma barber, and Eddle Foster were the winning pitchers. They pitched well. The Chicks hit the ball nard. The Tribe fleided sensationally. In a word they looked like champions instead of tall-enders.

GOODBRED VS. WEAVER.

In the third game of the series which is on the card for Monday afternoon, Tiny Goodbred, the giant spitball pitcher, will work for Memphis, and will be opposed by Buck Weaver, the lanky Pel. Buckerino was well on the way to a victory Saturday when it rained and stopped the baseball proceedings, so Buck believes he still has the percentage and will try his luck again.

Gil Meyers will catch for Memphis, while Hank Deberry will be back of the plate for New Orleans.

Pug Griffin, Chick first sacker, kicked himself out of the game and into a $10 fine in the final game of Sunday's double bill. It happened in the seventh when Griffin said Perdue had baiked. Pug proceeded to bawl the arbiter out in words that would make a sallor turn green with envy, and Johnson hustled the Chick doorman out, at the same time embellishing him with a ten-buck fine.

GILBERT'S GOOD RECORD. Larry Gilbert, New Orleans center fielder, has hit safely in 23 consecutive 34 games, he getting one blow in the 30 opener and two in the second game games, he getting to the second game as pener and two in the second game as sunday.

Larry came close to losing his string in the first game, waiting until his last time up to cut in with a safety. He hits the ball hard and is out to make a record for consecutive hitting.

Eddie Foster, Memphis right-hander, can propel a baseball tairly well, but that is not his only accomplishment. He can play a plano in a class by himself. When it comes to tickling the ivories Eddie bows to nobody except the emi-

Southern Needs Raise In Price Says John Dobbs

"The Southern league should raise its prices of admission 5 cents if it can hope to combat the high cost of living, hotel fare, railroad tickets and everything else, and still keep from going bankrupt."

This is the way Johnny Dobbs, New Orleans 'manager and a keen student of all angles of the national game, feels about the baseball situation in Dixis. The Texas league has raised its admissions 5 cents and the fans are coughing up without any argument whatever, and that the Southern will have to do it seems certain, according to the New out any argument whatever, and that the Southern will have to do it seems certain, according to the New Orieans manager.

"Everything has gone up, as everybody knows. It costs almost twice as much to haul a ball team around over the country as it did in the days before the war," says Dobbs "Hotel rates have been raised, and food is out of sight. The baseball club owners have been meeting all of the expenses out of the gate receipts, which have not been raised any, and which stand at the same old figure.
"Everybody is paying more for everything now, and only baseball comes in at the same figure. Some clubs are having a hard time making both ends meet. In the Texas this was the situation, and a nickel was added to the regular admission of 50 cents. The Texas teams are now getting on their financial feet. In my opinion this is what the Southern will have to have if some of the teams are able to come out from under the load of debt that they are now shouldering."

That the rule will probably be offered at the fall meeting of the league for adoption in time for the 1920 season is quite likely.

John L. Sullivan, New Orleans left fielder, contributed the greatest fielding play of Sunday's double-header, John L. spearing a drive off Pug Griffin's bat in the fifth inning of the second game which was ticketed for the stands. Sullivan turned his back as soon as the ball was hit and as the pill was ready to drop over into Spadeland. Sully stuck up his meat hand and pulled it down.

JESS WILLARD BEGINS TRAINING

Champion in Toledo and Starts Preparing for Fight.

TOLEDO, O., June 2.—Jess Willard was in Toledo today ready to finish training for his fight with Jack Demosey here July 4. The champion will do his conditioning at the Casino, a former clubhouse on Maumee bay. The camp is located within a mile of Demosey's quarters.

camp is located within a mile of Dempsey's quarters.

Willard planned to start light work today although it is probable he will not do any boxing until tomorrow. The champion was all smiles and contentment when he arrived last night. He appeared eager to get settled down in training and said he would begin four weeks of intensive work at once and that he would be his own "chief trainer."

"Till train myself and then I'll have no one to blame if I am beaten." he said.

With Willard on the scene. Jark Kearns, manager of Dempsey, plans to testup the challenger to avoid all possible danger of having him go stale. Dempsey probably will drop all work with the gloves after today.

"I weigh about 258 pounds and I am confident that when I meet Dempsey I won't be as heavy as I was for my match with Frank Moran. I may scale as low as I was for the Johnson contest, which was 249 pounds."

The champion will not have more than three sparring partners in camp at any time, he said. These will include Jack Hempel, a coast heavy weight, who came on from Los Angeles with him; Waiter Monahan, who trained him for his championship match with Jack Johnson, and another heavyweight yet to be selected.

With Willard on the scene, Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, plans to rest up the challenger to avoid all possible danger of having him go stale. Dempsey probably will drop all work with the gloves after today and Kearns may take him out of town on a moter trip to get his mind off the coming contest. Dempsey, his trainers say, already is almost in perfect condition. Battling Nelson, the former lightweight champlon, who won the title from Joe Gans in a contest promoted by Tex Rickard at Goldfield, Ne., 13 years ago, airrived today to become a fight reporter. The "Battler" found hotel accommodations at a premium and decided to pitch a tent on the shores of Maumee bay in which to live.

Russell's running catch in the bobtailed second game of the Mercantile league Saturday was one of the most sensational catches of the season.

Metteer, of the Gas team, Just reporting for play, seems to be in good shape and has his eye on the ball.

Patrick, who flings for the Polarines, is one of the classiest little hurlers whe ever stepped on the mound in Memphis. His work in every game is excellent and he is quite handy with the willow, too.

Brady, of the Orgills, in additton to handling the managerial position of the Orgills team, which is no easy task when stringing along with a loser, is fast rounding into shape as a hitter. His fielding was never rated bad, either. | Standing of Clubs. | Won. Lost. Pct. | Won. Lo
